Simply Marketing Communications by Chris Fill

The flow of communication in profile strategy (Fill 2013) It is of the utmost importance for marketing managers to understand who the intended audiences are, their level of priority and which strategy they fall under. As we discussed last week, all communications should be integrated but that doesn't mean different strategies don't apply.

Week 6: Marketing Communication Plan

Fill, considers marketing communication as a management process through which an organization interact with its audience in a one-way, two-way or dialogic way. (Fill, 2006) Kotler, Armstrong and Fill use the classical communication mix framework (See figure 1) for their analysis of used marketing communication mixes.
